

Spring 2020 book buyback for main and north campus

Because of the social distancing efforts related to the Covid-19 pandemic, your UNM Bookstores on Main Campus and North Campus will not be offering a face to face buyback event this May*. We sincerely apologize for this inconvenience.

However, we have arranged for online buyback through our sourcing partner: Nebraska Books. Nebraska will be offering money for most of your textbooks. The process is easy:

- Use your UNM.edu email address to register
- Enter your book's ISBN. If you have more than one book, be sure to enter all your book ISBNs, separated by commas, spaces, or lines
- See a price for your books, which you can decide to accept or not.
- If you accept the price, the company will send you a label after you create an account (use your unnm.edu email address, please) and provide the address to which they will send your check. NOTE: To reduce frustration, pay attention to the parameters for the password (8 characters, including a special character)
- You will use the label to ship your book(s)
- Company receives book and checks quality
- Books in good condition are accepted, and a check is cut to you from the company
- Books in poor condition are returned to you.

WARNING: DO NOT sell your rental books!****

*We are no longer planning to offer daily buyback as soon as we are able to open to the public for limited lobby service, on Monday, May 18th between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. If you are in the Albuquerque area and would prefer to obtain a quote for your books in person when we are finally able to offer this service in person, please monitor our website, bookstore.unm.edu, for days and times of service. We anticipate being open to the public as normal for back to school in August.

**If you have rented books from us, you will receive email reminders, sent to your official unnm.edu (or salud.unnm.edu), from textbook@unm.edu. These emails will list off of the books you have rented for Spring 2020. You may also visit our Rental Returns/Information page for help.
