

- Keep your course materials highly relevant.
- Select only the chapters and content you want and what students will use.
- Why assign an entire book for a few select chapters?

Select Content From Any Source

You don't have to limit yourself to one publisher.

Create Any Format

- Deliver your course materials online, on desktops, iPads and Android tablets- digital saves money.
- Include interactive content and embedded videos while offering your students advanced highlighting and note taking, team collaboration tools, and the ability to create a personal learning archive of digital materials.

Customize Your Course Materials

- Combine any and as many third party content items as you like.
- Put only the best materials into your required course pack. You can have access to out-of-print materials and book chapters, full customization, 100% copyright compliance, with print, digital and tablet delivery.
- Keep it in the UNM Bookstore so the students can use any form of payment, (including check or cash, financial aid, Lobocash, Bursar's account, and credit cards).
- Also can be made available for students to purchase through our website at bookstore.unm.edu.

Simply provide us with your reading list and let us take care of the rest.
